

The Journal of JSAEM

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

(Once the submission is accepted for publication, fill out the form and send it to the secretariat.)

Title of Paper _____

Name of Author(s) _____

Affiliation of Author(s) _____

All authors understand the copyright statement in the "Guide to Submissions to the Journal of JSAEM" and, upon confirming the following terms and conditions, transfer the copyright of the above paper to the Japan Society of Applied Electromagnetics and Mechanics, Incorporated (the "JSAEM"). The JSAEM will not prevent the original author from using the whole or part of the paper or article in the form of reproduction, translation, adaptation, etc. However, if the author wishes to use the whole contents in another work in the form of reproduction, he/she must apply in writing to JSAEM in advance and obtain its consent.

- (1) The paper must not have been published previously and is not scheduled for publication in any other publication, except for those presented at meetings sponsored by JSAEM, such as the MAGDA conference.
- (2) The paper does not infringe the copyright of any other work. For any quotations that require permission to reprint, that permission has been obtained.
- (3) All people who have made an essential contribution to the content of the paper are included as authors.
- (4) If necessary, consent has been obtained from an appropriate person at the author's institution regarding the publication of the content of the paper.

Corresponding author : _____

Signature : _____ Date : _____

The following is used when the author's institution requires the approval of the responsible person for the transfer of copyright.

The name of person in charge : _____ Position : _____

Signature : _____ Date : _____